

Volunteer Your Time and Talent!

The 10th annual Loch Lomond Youth Soccer Festival will be held at the University of Stirling, Scotland in August, 2010. Help the local organizing committee host this spectacular event, with teams participating from all over Europe and the US and have the “best seat in the house”, right down on the pitch! Adult volunteers are needed to help coordinate our small sided tournament, help with our social activities, Meet and Greet teams and much more.

What: 10th Annual Loch Lomond Youth Soccer Festival
